

EASTER SERVICE

Thank you to those parents and carers who supported us at our Easter service. We hope you enjoyed our singing. As I said on Tuesday, we are so proud of the pupils who were prepared to stand up and read aloud in church- they did a super job! Also, we congratulate our Year 6 pupils for the quality of their Easter poems.

NURSERY & RECEPTION PUPILS

On Thursday 2nd May, we have been informed that the Council are going to use the building for Police and Crime Commission elections.

Therefore, on Thursday 2nd May, Nursery and Reception will be closed to ensure the safety of our pupils.

We apologise for the inconvenience caused by this closure- as a Council owned building, we have to allow elections to go ahead on the premises when directed.

GIRLS FOOTBALL TEAM

Well done to the girls who took part in another football tournament. The girls placed 3rd after a heartbreaking defeat on penalties! The girls came top of the group stage but unfortunately lost on penalties in the semi-final. The girls played some amazing football and scored some great goals.
